

Not Just Now

Not Just Now is an organization that came about by chance. One lunch hour, a group of co-workers were discussing Lent. The question was asked what one person was giving up this year, when she replied, "Instead of giving something up, I want to give something back."

This simple statement started the ball rolling on a new idea, that we don't only need to give something back during lent, "Not Just Now" but every day. We decided to begin our work during the season of Lent, but we hope that the spirit of giving and sacrifice will last longer.

Starting on March 12, 2011 at 12:00 p.m. we will be putting our words into action at Woodruff Park. Using donated money, time, and materials, we will be handing out lunches to those in need every Saturday until we run out of all three.

If you would like to be a part of this movement, please do not hesitate to donate your time, talents, and support. We may not be able to cure hunger or homelessness on a grand scale, but we can help, one person at a time.

Thank you!
