The Emory University School of Medicine designates this enduring material for a maximum of 36 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity. The Emory University School of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians. The Maintenance of Certification process is built upon six AC-GME general competencies that identify the skills and information needed to deliver high-quality care to patients: patient care, medical knowledge, practice-based learning and improvement, interpersonal and communication skills, professionalism, and systems-based practice. This enduring material is designed to meet the educational needs of a national audience of physician assistants.
